FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

The agencies listed assist people with obtaining short-term and long-term financial assistance. Review carefully the requirements for each program.

Social Security Disability Income (SSDI)

Phone: 1.800.772.1213 (toll-free)

Website: www.socialsecurity.gov (apply online)

Social Security pays benefits to people who can't work because they have a medical condition that's expected to last at least one year or result in death. Federal law requires this very strict definition of disability. If a person is deemed permanently disabled and unable to work by a physician, Medicare will become active 2 years from the date of disability. If you qualify for Social Security disability benefits, you will also qualify for Medicare to cover your medical expenses. You automatically get Part A and Part B after you get disability benefits from Social Security for 24 months. If you have ALS, you automatically get Part A and Part B the month your disability benefits begin. (Government Agency)

Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

Phone: 1.800.722.1213

Apply online at www.socialsecurity.gov

Supplemental Security Income (SSI) is a Federal income supplement program that provides cash to help meet basic needs for food, clothing, and shelter. It is designed to help aged, blind, and disabled people who have little or no income. Households where all members receive, or are authorized to receive SSI cash assistance, are categorically eligible for Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP). (Government Agency)
