

Save the Date

FREE COMMUNITY EVENT

Aging in Place

Part of the Annual Generations Magazine Aging in Place Event

August 1, 2026

8:30 AM – 2:15 PM

Ala Moana Hotel

View the full event schedule at generations808.com

A free day to learn, ask questions, and connect — for older adults, people with disabilities, and the families who care for them.

What's Happening

Five easy-to-follow talks, all in one day. Come for one session, or stay for all of them! These presentations will be held in the Carnation Room.

How Aging & Disability Services Work Together in Hawai'i

8:30 – 9:15 AM

Daintry Bartoldus, Executive Director, Hawai'i State Council on Developmental Disabilities

Tani Salazar, MSW, LSW, Alzheimer's Disease & Related Dementias Services Coordinator, Executive Office on Aging

Che Silvert, Community & Legislative Liaison, Hawai'i State Council on Developmental Disabilities

Cristina Valenzuela, Legal Services Developer, Executive Office on Aging

Dementia & Developmental Disabilities: What to Know

9:30 – 10:15 AM

Dr. Pokii Balaz

Medicaid & Medicare: Making Sense of Your Benefits

10:30 – 11:15 AM

Scott Gardner

Pili Ola: Health Through Connection

11:30 AM – 12:15 PM

Cindy Garza Moore, Project Director, Pili Ola

Get Ready: A Simple Guide to Emergency Planning

12:30 – 1:15 PM

Zosimo Arista, MSW, Program Specialist, Hawai'i State Council on Developmental Disabilities

Brought to you in partnership with the Bridging Aging and Intellectual/Developmental Disabilities Grant ACL Grant # HHS-2021-ACL-AOD-DNCE-0099